Good Morning,

Please be advised that per New Mexico Statute, the Recount Board will begin on Monday, December 5, 2022.

Universal Citation: NM Stat § 1-14-16 \(2020\)

A. Immediately after filing of the application for recount or recheck, or notice of an automatic recount, the appropriate canvassing board shall issue an order to the county clerk of each county where a precinct specified in the application or notice is located commanding the county clerk to convene a recount precinct board [election board] at the county seat on a day specified in the order, which date shall not be more than ten days after the filing of the application for a recount or recheck or notice of an automatic recount.

B. Upon receipt of the order, the county clerk shall appoint a recount precinct board [election board] pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-2-12 NMSA 1978 and shall send notices of the names of the recount precinct board [election board] members and the date fixed for the recount or recheck to the district judge for the county and the county chair of each of the political parties that participated in the election for the office in question. The county clerk shall keep a log of how each person was notified and confirmation that the notice was received. Presiding judges and election judges on the recount precinct board [election board] shall be appointed from among those persons who served as precinct board [election board] members in the most recent election.

C. The recount precinct board [election board], district judge and county clerk shall meet on the date fixed for the recount or recheck, and the ballot boxes and ballot containers or voting machines of the precincts involved in the recount or recheck shall be opened. The recount precinct board [election board] shall recount and re-tally the ballots, or recheck the votes cast on the voting machines, as the case may be, for the office in question in the presence of the county clerk, district judge and any other person who may desire to be present.
